ABSTRACT

A system and method for maintaining the integrity of hyperlinks for intranet and Internet applications through a registration and notification process. Hyperlink data is registered and stored in a user database for notifying the host of the hyperlink of any changes to data files associated with the hyperlink in order to help facilitate the preservation of the hyperlink.

Case: 10011040-1